The Joint Secretary (HE), MHRD, New Delhi has also requested the States to prepare a comprehensive State Higher Education Plan (SHEP) for seeking necessary support under RUSA. The second phase of RUSA is on a challenge mode and therefore, each component approved to States will be on a competitive mode. States will also have to sign a MoU with the Department of Higher Education on commitments to fulfilling certain conditions and requested the States to prepare and submit details of SHEPs by 15th April, 2018.

The State Higher Education Plan (SHEP) which presents a short, medium and long term plan for the State Higher Education sector, should be approved by the State Higher Education Council (SHEC). The SHEP should contain proposals of the State up to 31st March 2020 and the State's vision for the sector's growth over the next 10-15 years. While undertaking the exercise of preparing the SHEP, bottom-up approach is to be followed by involving all concerned stakeholders in the preparatory exercise. Also minutes of all consultation meetings conducted in the preparation of the SHEP is to be shared by annexing these minutes to the final SHEP.

In this Connection a State level Advisory committee is constituted with the following educational experts to review the SHEP critically, with a view to identify thrust areas, gaps in infrastructure and strategies to fill up these gaps and other academic related issues.
